

suffer culture shock or be traumatised by life events in other countries

be the victim of racism be very talented in many areas but need literacy support be able to switch between cultural expectations have pride in their culture be constrained by cultural practice e.g.: the expectation to be obedient means that they may be reluctant to ask questions

Cultural attributes may... or could... be conflicted between school culture and home culture and become unsure, withdrawn and underachieve speak two or more languages fluently be able to express themselves through culturally derived performance, art, dress or technologies be driven to be of service to their particular culture/ community be able to lead others in cultural contexts have mana amongst peers from the same culture be able to share aspects of their culture with others have knowledge of cultural traditions and practices